

Table of Contents

Foreword	v
Pierre Bedossa
Preface	vii
Han van Krieken
Acknowledgements	ix
1. A Society is Born (1963-1966)	1
The Founding Fathers Assemble.....	3
A Leader Emerges.....	4
Early Decisions.....	6
Welcome to Salzburg: The Official Launch.....	10
Doing the Housework.....	15
A Journal for Europe.....	19
Organising for Warsaw.....	24
2. Congresses and Coups d'etats (1967-1978)	33
Building the Membership.....	34
Building the Journal.....	35
April 1967: Tanks in Athens.....	37
The Rocky Road to Zurich.....	40
A Society Adrift.....	43
Computers and Continuity.....	45
The Succession Problem.....	46
Surprises in Castrocara Terme.....	47
The First Lady of Pathology.....	49
Triumph in Budapest.....	54
"Many Thanks for the Lovely Lymph Node Section".....	57
The Beginning of the Nezelof Years.....	59
Death of a Journal.....	62
Lessons from London.....	63
Rebirth of a Journal.....	65
3. Defending the Profession (1979-1987)	69
Iberia Rising.....	70
Una Gran Bienvenida.....	72

The Old Professor.....	74	A Gathering Storm.....	166
The Norwegian-Portuguese Connection.....	75	The Storm Breaks.....	169
"What if We Run a Deficit?".....	77	Picking up the Pieces.....	172
Looking East.....	79	A Meeting by the Waterfalls.....	175
Team Building Slovenian-Style.....	82	A 50:50 Share.....	176
A Truly European Journal?.....	84	Into the Major Leagues.....	177
Pathology in the Firing Line.....	86	The 21-Point Plan.....	178
The First Working Groups.....	89	Istanbul 2007.....	182
Improving Governance.....	91	A Home for the Society.....	185
A Hanseatic Welcome.....	92	6. The Face of European Pathology (2008-2014).....	187
Breaking the Paraffin Curtain.....	95	Professionalising the Administration.....	188
Athens: The Congress of Smiles.....	97	Managing the Money.....	190
The Last of the War Generation.....	100	Introducing the EdCom.....	192
Return to Eastern Europe.....	101	The Quality Assurance Initiative.....	193
A Programme for the Future.....	104	Florence 2009.....	194
4. A New Europe (1988-1999).....	107	Wells in Eastern Europe.....	196
Urbanising and Christi(a)nising the Administration.....	108	Lobbying and EU Relations.....	197
Bridging Left and Right.....	112	Virchows Archiv.....	198
Towards Harmonisation.....	118	Return to Helsinki.....	200
EuroCellPath.....	121	Extending the Society's Network.....	201
European School of Pathology.....	124	Return to Prague.....	203
A World in Turmoil.....	126	Working Groups: the 'Muscles' of the ESP.....	203
Back to Business.....	129	A Credible Online Presence.....	209
The Alpine Congress.....	131	A Real Congress in Lisbon — and a Fictional Congress in Antwerp... ..	210
Reaching Out to a Different East.....	133	New Projects and New Partners.....	214
A Publishing 'Courtship Dance'.....	136	London 2014: The 50th Anniversary Congress.....	216
Rethinking the Congress 'Rules of the Game'.....	138	Annex 1. A Brief History of Pathology.....	221
Copenhagen: "We hope you find the country has changed...".....	139	Annex 2. Pathology Scene in Europe (1984 Survey).....	235
The Agnantis Games.....	140	Annex 3 ESP Officers (1964-2014).....	253
Maastricht and the (slow) Rise of Women in the ESP.....	144	Index.....	257
The Schools Branch Out.....	147
Housekeeping Arrangements.....	149
Relaunching Virchows Archiv.....	150
Reflections at the End of the Millennium.....	151
5. Millennium Passed, Gotterdammerung Avoided (2000-2007) ..	153
Chasing Paper in Funchal.....	154
Berlin: "There is less money than expected".....	156
Working Groups (finally) Come of Age.....	159
Schools Progress.....	164		