

Contents

Taking advantage — how to use financial support for health and child-care in an optimal way Oivind Larsen	7
The financial mechanisms: Solidarity, opportunity, cooperation Lars-Erik Hauge	9
Health systems and primary health care Odd Arild Haugen	14
Life-style and substance abuse Bernt Bull	20
Cancer in a comparative perspective Freddie Bray	24
Estonia - some facts	31
The Electronic Health Record Project of Estonia Alo Jurgenstein	32
Hungary - some facts	37
Current changes in the Hungarian health care system Csaba Dozsa	40
Latvia - some facts	47
New partnerships with Latvia on health and child-care through Norwegian and EEA financial mechanisms Edite Pavlovskaja	49
Lithuania - some facts	57
EEA financial mechanisms and the health sector - the situation in Lithuania Martynas Pukas	59
Poland - some facts	63
e-Health in Poland - the national e-Health implementation plan Leszek Sikorski	65
Czech Republic - some facts	69
The Czech Republic and the financial mechanisms - current health challenges Barbora Hudcova	71
The road ahead for health and health systems in Central and Eastern Europe Josep Figueras	74
Public health in transition - challenges ahead in the new EU member states Jan E. Zejda	84
EEA and Norwegian financing announcement	93